11:45am "Popeye & Sailor"

If you're proud when you can get your dog to sit, you'll be amazed at what the talented canine performer Sailor can do. Under the guidance of her trainer, Alex "Popeye" Rothacker, Sailor jumps rope, walks a tightrope and balances a ball while walking, to name a few of her dog-gone enjoyable stunts. Alex and his amazing dog act have performed throughout the U.S. and Canada for more than 20 years. They have made numerous TV appearances, including three times on "Late Show with David Letterman" and another on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno," where the audience voted Sailor the "Smartest Dog in the World." Alex demonstrates animal training as well as the value of a good obedience foundation and pet safety. Respect for animals is also communicated. Alex entertains audience questions following the program, which may help anyone whose dog is not quite at the sitting-on-command stage.

Afterwards Popeye and Sailor the Poodle will be available for up close & personal, and photo-op's.
